

Report

We donated 100 bicycles to junior high school (Arahama and Watari Junior high school, Miyagi prefecture), which affected by the disaster, based on the direct report from the Japan International Food For The Hungry (JIFH), engaging in supportive action in affected areas.

There reports said that there were many students in needs of bicycles to commute schools from their each evacuated areas.

Temporary school building of Arahama

Operating base of the Japan
Self-Defense Forces

Carrying bicycles by a truck

Students helped carrying bicycles

Assembling wheels

With teachers and students of Arahama junior high school

JIFH helped our supportive action

At bicycle shed in Arahama junior high school

The position of Watari junior high school

The former Arahama junior high school, which still stands in the restricted area.

The disk has broken 1km far from Abukuma-estuary

Arahama junior high school
Tsunami reached at ceiling on 1st floor

From back entrance

The doors and windows were broken by tsunami on 1st floor

The direction of the shore

The sough buried by the heap of rubble

The area about 500m far from coastal line. There still remains tremendous damages.